DESTINATION SPA

Niagara-on-the-Lake is already famous amongst theatre goers and wine lovers, but the addition of a destination spa will be another excellent reason to make the drive. According to Quesnel, this was part of the vision from the cellar, mixed with an eclectic selection of fine wines from around the world. According to Chef Treadwell, guests view dining as an integral part of their visit. "Niagara is blessed with some of the best growing conditions in Ontario for not only wines but fruits and vegetables. We're here to showcase the best of what the entire peninsula has to offer."

movement. Chef-Founder Stephen Treadwell's focus on artisanal local ingredients has already earned the restaurant a reputation as one of the finest in the region. Sommelier-Founder James Treadwell has curated a Niagara focused wine

FINE DINING + FABULOUS ENTERTAINMENT

Connoisseurs of food and wine will already be familiar with Treadwell Cuisine, a leader in the farm-to-table fresco amidst our gardens, so the expanded seating is a welcome addition." One of the biggest draws to the region remains the Shaw Festival, and 124 on Queen Hotel and Spa – an official sponsor of the Royal George Theatre – will provide guests with premium theatre packages including tickets to performances. The property concierge will also be on hand to guide guests to the best wine tastings, vineyards, and other local attractions. IN THE HEART OF THE COMMUNITY
