

7 Canadian Spas To Visit If You Want A Boozy Weekend Away With Your Besties

Get ready to get pampered!

The Boathouse Spa at the Oak Bay Beach Hotel in Victoria, B.C. @boathousespa | Instagram

Katherine Caspersz
Creator

Jun 29, 2023, 8:00 PM

0 comments

Fancy a little R+R? It might be time to gather up your friends and head to a spa.

Thankfully, Canada has no shortage of luxurious spas to choose from. With spas featuring Nordic thermal baths and luxurious retreats in the city, there's something for every kind of getaway, whether you're looking to completely unwind or just have fun with friends.

If you're not sure where to go, we've rounded up a few especially lovely spas located across the country that offer relaxation and pampering, as well as drinks and accommodations, meaning you can turn your day at the spa into a boozy getaway.

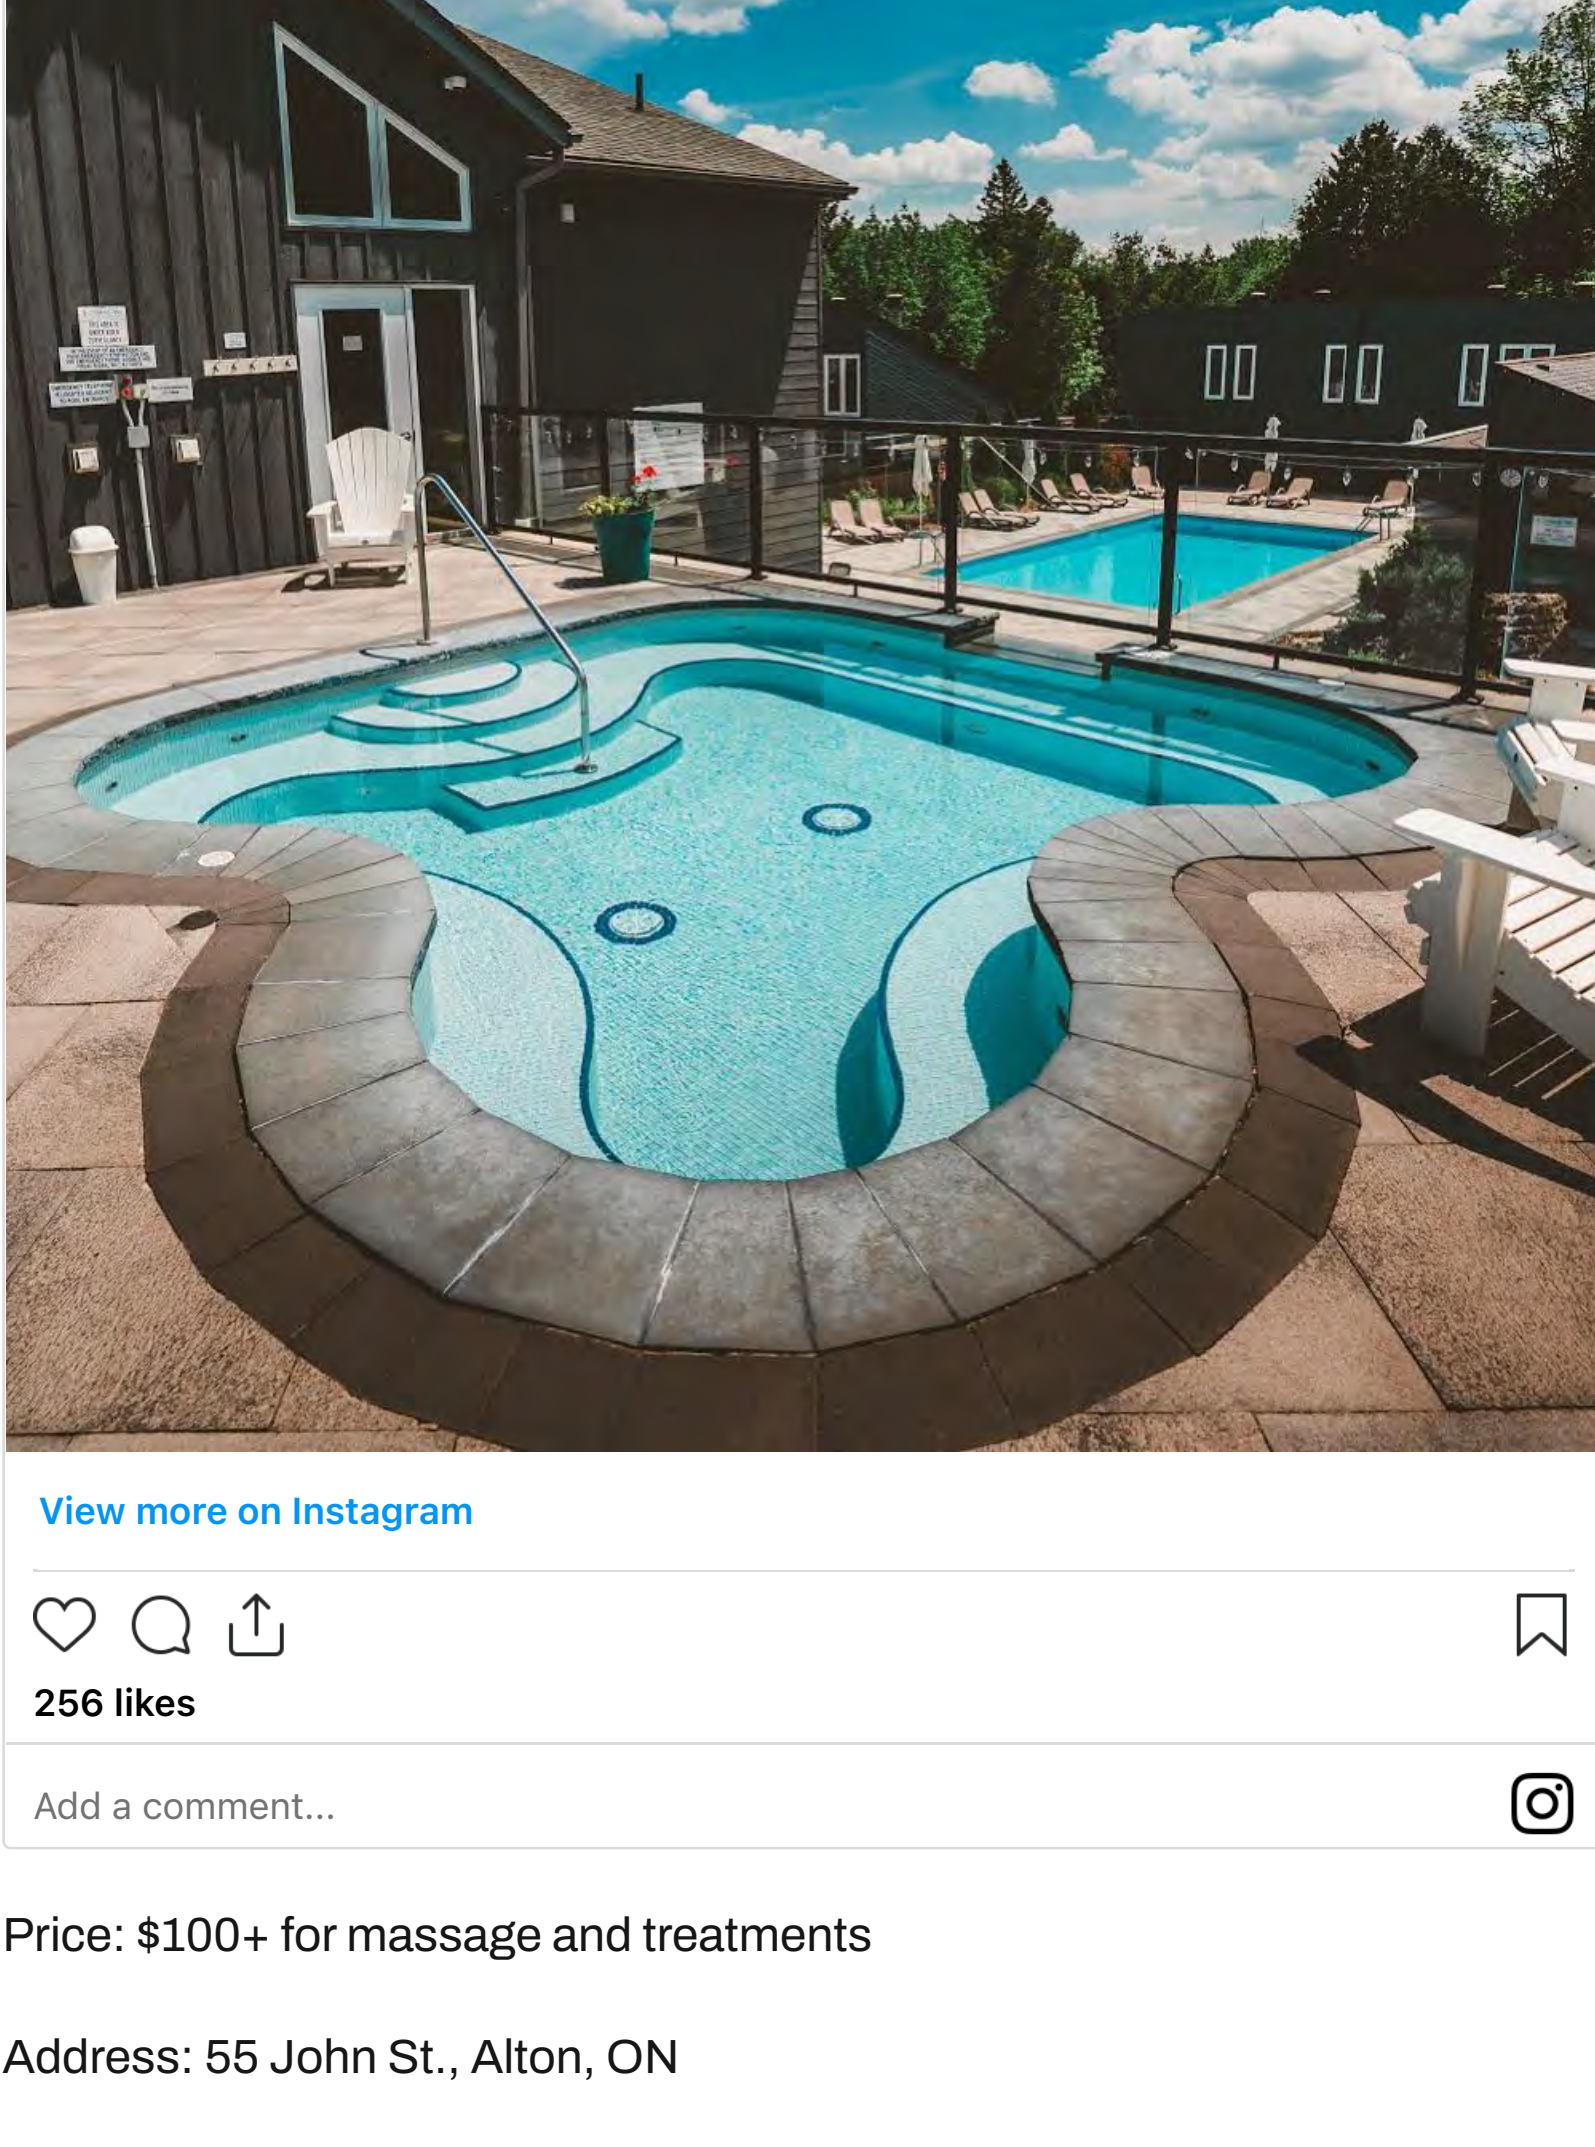

All that's left to do is book your weekend away. Round up your crew and get ready to unwind — here are seven Canadian spas to check out for a relaxing getaway this summer.

Millcroft Inn & Spa

vintage_hotels
Caledon, Ontario

View profile

View more on Instagram

256 likes

Add a comment...

Price: $100+ for massage and treatments

Address: 55 John St., Alton, ON

Why You Need To Go: Tucked away in the hills of Caledon, Ontario, The Millcroft Inn & Spa offers fresh country air and outdoor hot spring pools where you can soak away your worries.

With accommodations on-site, the spa is the perfect place for a getaway. In terms of services, the spa offers several kinds of massage, facials, body wraps and even unique services like reiki and chakra balancing.

While you're there, be sure to also check out their poolside cafe for sandwiches, charcuterie and regional wines.

Accessibility: Some accessible services. Mention needs at time of booking for accommodations.

Millcroft Inn & Spa website

Nordik Spa-Nature

sophia.4792
Nordik Spa-Nature / Chelsea

View profile

Price: Rates starting at $90 for thermal experience

Address: 16 ch. Nordik, Chelsea, QC

Why You Need To Go: Nordik Spa-Nature in Chelsea, Quebec, is an oasis with thermal pools that will make you feel like you're relaxing in the hot springs of Iceland.

The spa, which can be found in the Outaouais region on the outskirts of Gatineau Park, has 10 outdoor baths and nine saunas in which you can rejuvenate and relax.

It's also home to a saltwater flotation pool that's said to be "better than the Dead Sea."

If you want to stay a bit longer, you can reserve the spa's Nordic lodge or Alpine lodge to spend the night. While you're here, be sure to hit up the spa's on-site restaurants for specialty Nordik cocktails, beer and dishes created with local ingredients.

Nordik Spa-Nature website

Fox Harb'r Resort & Spa

megangarvock
Fox Harb'r Resort

View profile

View more on Instagram

Price: $77+ for body treatments

Address: 1337 Fox Harbour Rd., Fox Harbour, NS

Why You Need To Go: At the Fox Harb'r resort, you'll find Nova Scotia's top-rated spa.

The Dol-ús Spa offers manicures, pedicures, facials and an array of massage and body treatments so you and your crew can get pampered from head to toe.

After pampering, spend the night at the resort, which is one of the only five-star resorts in the country.

Featuring "world-class golf," and "exquisite dining," and its own vineyard, the resort offers a taste of luxury in the Maritimes. The rooms here come complete with elegant touches, like heated bathroom floors and "the finest bed linens."

Fox Harb'r Resort Spa website