SILVERSEA TAKES MONACO GRAND PRIX TO NEW HEIGHTS

Silversea Cruises is giving travellers a chance to join Australian racing legend and nine-times Formula One Grand Prix winner, Mark Webber, at the world-famous Monaco Grand Prix.

This opportunity is exclusive to Silversea guests who will be travelling between Barcelona and Civitavecchia, Rome on May 20, aboard the cruise line's flagship Silver Muse.

For the first time, Webber will participate in a special talk, plus a question-and-answer session for guests attending the Monaco Grand Prix on May 26, as part of a two-day land package. During the talk, Webber will discuss his illustrious career and reveal his own insights into the Monaco Grand Prix. Webber will also be available to sign autographs, respond to questions and provide photo opportunities.

Guests wishing to experience the thrill of the world's most renowned Formula One Race will do so in style with Silversea's two-day, Monaco Grand Prix land adventure. Viewing the race from the Balcony of the Club F1 Monaco Dance Academy, guests will enjoy the hospitality and a comfortable vantage point, as they watch the world's talented racers speed around the tight corners of Monte Carlo.

MAY 20 DEPARTURE

This high-octane, two-day land adventure forms part of the nine-day sailing from Barcelona to Civitavecchia, Rome, departing on May 20. Prices for the land adventure start at US$3,120 per person and includes F1 Monaco Dance Academy tickets for time trials and final race, escorted transfers available at specified times, buffet lunch and cocktails on Saturday and Sunday, special talk including question-and-answer session by Webber, Silversea's exclusive Grand Prix Race Essentials – Official Grand Prix de Monaco Program, Monaco Auto Club ticket holder and access to the wellness centre with osteopath, Shiatsu and reflexology, makeup artist, hair stylist, manicurist nail bar, F1 simulator, live music, and F1 artist exhibition.
